To-DAY the Tabernacle will be dedicated to the service of religion at Ocean Grove, N. J. The name calls to mind the more famous Tabernacle of Brooklyn, of which Rev. Dr. Talmage was long pastor, and which was four times destroyed by fire. Those interested in the Ocean Grove Tabernacle will doubtless hope that the similarity between it and its Brooklyn namesake will end with the name.

CRIMINAL DOINGS.

A Number of Interesting Cases Before the Local Courts.

ASSAULT ON THE BRIDGE WATCHMAN

Partly Investigated by Squire Gillespie—Shields, the Alleged Embezzler, Brought Back from Columbus. The Charges Against Squire Arkle, Cases in Police Circles Yesterday and Last Night.

After a lull of a day or two, local criminal business seems to have taken a sudden spurt yesterday. The Martin's Ferry man, Coss, who assaulted Watchman Rodahaver, at the Union bridge night before last, was arraigned before Squire Gillespie, at the office of the county jail, in the afternoon. Rodahaver appeared to testify as to the assault. His head was bandaged all over. In addition to his having a large piece of his ear cut clear off, his head was badly bruised and cut. The assault, from all accounts, was a brutal and inexcusable one.

Coss claimed that a witness named Hueselton could give important testimony for his defense, and as he could not be found in time for the hearing, the trial was adjourned until this evening. Coss meanwhile being sent back to jail.

Prisoners for the Pen.

Peter Silliman, sheriff of Kanawha county, with Deputy Sheriff L. L. Jenkins and several guards, yesterday brought up to Moundsville six prisoners, all sent up at the recent term of the circuit court. Sheriff Silliman and Deputy Jenkins spent the day in Wheeling. They had to lodge their prisoners in the Marshall county jail for a day, as the commitments to the penitentiary were lost on the way up, and the officials could not receive the men without the official documents.

The prisoners were: T. A. Davis and Andrew Dunlap, both white, five years each for robbery; Ben Wall, white, one year for killing a cow; Sam Johnson, colored, three years for grand larceny; Stephen Adkins, white, one year for the same; and William Branch, three years for the same. One of the number was a very tall man, measuring six feet and five inches.

Put in by the Police.

Officer Driller last night locked up Frank Clark, a man who was selling tooth paste on the South Side without a license, and who was also accused of insulting ladies there.

Officers Carney and Lukins put in an old man named O'Connell, who was full, and had a big roll of money. He was in the company of people open to suspicion, and refusing to go to his hotel, he was lodged behind the bars for his own protection.

Later last night two traveling men became abusive at the Stamm house, and the police were telephoned for. The men left, but Officer Lukins caught one of them, S. D. Shannon, of Pittsburgh, and a disorderly charge was lodged against him.

All Four Sent up.

In the police court yesterday morning Maggie Townsend, a plain drunk, was sent to jail for thirty days in default of a fine of $5 and costs. Chris Cline was given fifteen days in default of $1 and costs as a plain drunk, although he pleaded hard to be let off, saying he had a good job at Mt. Pleasant, and would go there at once. George Forsythe got $5 and costs for disorderly conduct, and as he couldn't pay, he also went to the hill for thirty days, as did a wandering bum who had the nerve, when arraigned on a charge of vagrancy, to say that his name was John Kenna.

He Owned the Goods.

About 4 o'clock yesterday morning, Officer O'Brien found an old man named Frank Waynacher on the street with a strange assortment of goods. He had several cheap watches, a few miners' lamps, a big bundle of clothing and a toy steam engine. The officer brought him up to headquarters on suspicion, but investigation showed that the things were his own. He had a falling out at home, and was taking his departure. He was induced to return. He has long acted very eccentrically.

A Mysterious Robbery.

Night before last or yesterday morning somebody robbed the money drawer in J. A. Holliday & Sons' planing mill office of $35 and a few cents. A mysterious thing about it is that the drawer was neither unlocked nor broken open. There was a space behind large enough for a hand to be inserted, and it is suspected that in some way the thief knew of this.

Shields Brought Back.

Yesterday at 5 o'clock a. m., Chief of Police McNichol returned from Columbus, having in custody W. H. Shields, the former driver and collector for S. H. Bell, the produce man, who accused him of embezzling from $150 to $200. He was sent to jail in default of bail by Squire Gillespie for a preliminary hearing next Monday at 2 p. m.

The Charges Against Arkle.

The charges of malfeasance in office and other misconduct preferred by a committee of Elm Grove citizens and the Ohio Valley Trades Assembly against Justice of the Peace George Arkle, will be heard by the board of commissioners this forenoon, a special session convening at 10 o'clock for that purpose.

Martin's Ferry's Offenders.

Three men were each fined $25 and costs each yesterday at Martin's Ferry: Andrew Munohan for assaulting Chris Zercher, Clyde Shipman for throwing a stone at George McCue and Charles Hull for breaking the window of Philip Leonard's saloon. Dr. Martin, of Washington, Pa., was arrested for drunkenness.

Robbed of $7.

Joe Miller complained to the police yesterday that a New York tough, whose name he was not able to give, had stolen $7 from him. He gave a description of the man, and wanted him arrested, but so far he has not been found.

Charged with Stealing.

Last night Squire Gillespie partly heard a case against a boy named Harry Shaw, accused of robbing a B. & O. freight car several weeks ago of some candy and other goods. The hearing was adjourned to secure other evidence.

CURES OTHERS

Mrs. MARTHA JANE PRINGLE, of Cham, Jackson Co., W. Va., writes: "Having been a great sufferer for many years with nearly every disease my sex is heir to, I can now say I am well and hearty. Have done more hard work in the past year, and with more ease, than I have done for twelve years. Before consulting you I was the most wretched among women, unable to walk or sit up in bed, and now I owe my good health all to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pelle's.' I gained twelve pounds while using the first bottle of 'Prescription.' I send you my picture together with my most heartfelt thanks. To any one suffering as I did who wants to know the particulars of my case and who will send a stamped envelope with name and address on, I will write particulars."
